

COOL DAYS AND COOL EVENINGS MADE THE PAST WEEK ONE OF MANY ENJOYABLE SOCIAL AFFAIRS; NUMEROUS WEDDINGS FEATURE EVENTS SOCIALLY

By MRS. JULIA A. SHARP

THE cool days and cooler evenings of the last week have seemed to give new strength and life to those socially inclined and the week has been filled with luncheons, parties and lawn festivities.

Sunday was a day of weddings. Miss Coral Bina and Pale Hogue were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother, and Miss Will M. Harris and Richard E. Kelly plighted their troth that day at the home of the bride's mother.

Monday the El Paso Federation of Women's Clubs held a rousing meeting, with Mrs. H. T. Davis giving a stirring talk on "Americanization" and Mrs. Rose O'Hara talking on the "Immoral conditions of the city and county." Much good is expected from both talks. The "Cheerful Girls" club enjoyed a lawn supper that evening at the home of Miss Emma Bohn.

Tuesday morning Mrs. E. H. Booth, Jr., gave a smart luncheon at the Green Tea Pot Inn for Miss Helen Edmonston and Miss Pauline Richolt, out of town visitors. In the evening Miss Gertrude Smith, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bruce Smith, entertained with an informal dancing party.

Wednesday Mrs. J. T. Lane entertained the El Paso Missionary society, and in the evening Miss Mabelle Betha was hostess for the Pythian Sisters. Thursday evening at 8 o'clock one of the prettiest affairs of the season was the wedding of Miss Katherine Taylor and Louis James L. Garza, Jr., which took place at the cathedral. This charming girl will be sadly missed, as she left at once with her husband for San Francisco, from where they will sail for the Orient. The Loyal Women's Bible class met with Mrs. H. D. Ashley in the afternoon, and in the evening several smart dinners were given at the Teller club preceding the dancing. Lieut. and Mrs. John Alexander Klein, Jr., were hosts for Mrs. Lewis Kemble, of Denver. The El Paso Federation of Women's Clubs gave a benefit card party Thursday afternoon.

Friday noon Mrs. M. P. Schuster gave a luncheon at the country club announcing the engagement of her attractive daughter, Margaret Ruth, to Lieut. Schuyler Bailey Marshall, Jr. In the afternoon the Aerie club and the White Shrine social club held meetings, and in the evening a brilliant lawn party was given by the popular Misses Reaney at their home.

Charles Brann. There will be about 20 guests. There will be several meetings of the various women's orders and many social affairs, no doubt. The forecast is light, but as everything is so informal and depends on the state of the weather, there is prospect of social activity.

Soon how the people will be coming home from beach and moon on the water and will plunge into the social swim to make up for the dearth of affairs during the heated period.

It is merely self respect to wish to appear at your best. It is here that you find the purest downy like powder, the most fragrant sachets and the finest imported perfumes and toilet waters and many other little luxuries. It is also here you find White's Guaranteed Hair Tonic and Dandruff Remedy. Stop in at one of our three stores and ask for them.

Wonderful Scenery And Fine Fishing In Northern New Mexico, Says Dixon

LYLES DIXON, wife and two children, Adren, and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Seamen and three children have returned from a delightful vacation of a month in the mountains of northern New Mexico and southern Colorado. They made the trip by automobile and spent most of the time fishing near Tierra Amarilla, on the Brazos river. In the northern part of Rio Arriba county, in New Mexico, it is one of the finest fishing places he ever saw.

Mr. Dixon says, and they caught more fish than they could use. "It took us two days to travel 150 miles to the fishing grounds," said Mr. Dixon. "Although we were only two days covering the entire distance from El Paso to a point beyond Santa Fe, 110 miles this side of the fishing place. The country is beautiful in scenery and very mountainous, hence the going is slow, but one is amply repaid after reaching the fishing grounds by the wonderful scenery and the fine sport. We were the only people on the river all the time we were there."

"Returning we went up into southern Colorado over Wolf Creek pass, rising to an altitude of 10,000 feet where there was snow everywhere. Taos in New Mexico, Taos is full of artists there for the summer, and talk about Bohemian Taos is the center of Bohemia. The artists are thick as bees around there and they parade around barefooted and in bath robes."

"One of the things that interested us very much up in that section were the numerous signs. The first service has erected signs everywhere telling you the direction to this and that place, how far it is to the next water, the names of the trees through which you pass and everything for the convenience and interest of the tourists. Lack of signs was just as noticeable this side of Albuquerque. El Paso should put up signs directing automobilists to this city and also the best roads. Many roads need sign-posting. For instance after you cross Elephant Butte dam and go north, there is a road that leads north across a small dam that saves one a great deal of detouring through heavy sand. If there was only a sign the other side of Elephant Butte to show you the way. We came back over it, but on our way up, we did not know about the cutoff and we made a detour down towards Palomas that took a great deal of time and was a lot of trouble, because of sand."

En route, Mr. Dixon lost his first bird dog, "Bob," when near the Elephant Butte dam. The dog chased a rabbit into the brush and was never seen again, although Mr. Dixon searched a whole day for him. He believes the animal got lost in the sacbrush and was probably devoured by a coyote. He says he would not have taken $250 for "Bob."

Will You Help Us to Persuade Mother?

Mother is more than half persuaded now. All she needs is your hearty encouragement.

She has realized for some time that the Acme Laundry Man with his perfect soft water system, pure soap, improved family washing equipment, and skilled Family Washing experts is in a position to do the Family Washing with fine discrimination in the treatment of different fabrics and colors; in fact to do it as well as she can do it.

You will agree with us that mother has enough to do without fussing with the Family Washing whether she hires it done or does it herself.

Mother gets fearfully tired, but smiles and says she is feeling tip top when she is about ready to drop. And we, careless perhaps, in our absorption in our own comforts, take her word for it.

Isn't it about time to ease up on her? There is more to life than eternal work.

Tell mother that it is really useless to fuss with the Family Wash. Get her to bundle it up and Ring 4300 for the cheerful and always obliging Acme Laundry Man.
